FROM THE HELM!

Well, here we are in the middle of October. Winter is approaching and the boats are coming out of the water at a rapid pace. The summer may be over but the fun at RVYC has not stopped. Coming up next is our Election night and pizza party on Friday November 4th at Kean's starting at 8:00 pm.

We had our nominations night at the last meeting and ended up with a great group of people competing for the illustrious jobs here at River View.

Here are the candidates:

Directors (2 will be elected):

- Joe Clapper
- Jim Baran
- Carolyn Stoehr
- Chuck Koleski
- Lee Vauris

Secretary:

- Ed Pritchard
- Ray Lacy
- Karen Bungee

Treasurer:

- Mike Schrage
(incumbent)
- John Roth

- Joe Bacile

At the meeting on November 4th, we will be electing the members who will be serving on the 2006 Board along with Herb Alfaro (2006 Commodore), Dave Passmore (2006 Vice Commodore) and myself (Past Commodore). Take a look at these candidates and come prepared to cast your vote for the one's you feel are the best candidates to take us through 2006. If you are on the list, come to the meeting prepared to tell us all why we should elect you for the position you are running for.

So make sure you get down to Kean's to participate in the elections. It's your club and your vote counts! The club will be providing pizza for everyone so come hungry!

Well, I gotta go so I'll see you at the Meeting!

Commodore Ron Sherman

Vice Views from the Bridge

The month of October has been typical mid-west weather. Nice warm sunny days followed by cool evenings and very cool nights. Great to be in Michigan. There have been plenty of warm weekends for fall boating. My neighbor in our harbor (Doc Perron) took full advantage the second weekend to enjoy perhaps one last outing before winterizing. Lucky him and Eleanor !!

We enjoyed the Haul-out party on Sunday, October 9th at Keans. It was very well attended by lots of members (even some without boats).The menu included chicken, hot dogs, chili, munchies, numerous deserts and liquid refreshments. Carolyn and Jim brought whiskey sours to sell as fundraisers. I believe that went quite well.

The nominations for directors and bridge officers were successful, as was the annual bake sale, which netted over $200.00. Don't forget to attend the November meeting and cast your vote for your favorite candidate and enjoy the pizza party following the meeting.

That's it from high on the bridge.

Vice Commodore Herb Alfaro
